

Gambling & Mental Health

Understand the impact. Notice the pattern.
Know what to do.

WHAT IS IT?

Gambling means risking money or something of value on an uncertain outcome. It includes betting, lotteries, casino games, gaming machines and online gambling.

Concern grows when it is hard to control or harms mental health, money, relationships, daily life or sport. A coach should support—not diagnose.

5 WAYS GAMBLING CAN AFFECT SOMEONE

01 Mood & wellbeing

Stress, guilt, anxiety, low mood or hopelessness may grow. Losses can intensify distress.

02 Control & chasing

Someone may gamble more than intended, increase stakes, chase losses or struggle to stop.

03 Money & debt

Borrowing, selling possessions, unpaid bills or using essential money can create serious pressure.

04 Relationships & trust

Secrecy, lying, arguments and broken commitments can damage trust and isolate the person.

05 Time & participation

Gambling thoughts, app-checking and late nights can disrupt sleep, focus, attendance and sport.

SIGNS TO LOOK OUT FOR IN SPORT

What a volunteer coach may notice—and what to do next.

- Constant betting talk or checking odds and gambling apps.
- Missing sessions, poor sleep, distraction or reduced reliability.
- Borrowing money, selling items or showing unusual financial stress.
- Chasing losses, raising stakes or saying they cannot stop.
- Secrecy, defensiveness, irritability, anxiety or low mood.
- Feeling trapped by debt, hopeless, or talking about self-harm or suicide.

Look for change, patterns and context. These signs can have many explanations.

 Spot Changes in behaviour, mood, attendance or performance. No obvious sign? Check in anyway.	 Say what you have noticed, or simply remind them you care: "I've noticed.." "I'm checking in.." Follow safeguarding procedures.	 Give them time. Ask open questions. Do not interrupt, judge or rush to try and fix everything. Take notice and care to listen.	 Stay calm, kind and non-judgmental. Repeat back what they tell you. Respect privacy within the safeguarding limits e.g. Coach, Parent and Safeguarding Officer. Ask what would help.	 If anything worries you follow the safeguarding procedures and connect them with the right lead, trusted person, GP or support service. Immediate danger call 999.

5 WAYS TO SUPPORT SOMEONE

01 Talk Without Judgement

Choose a suitable moment and ask directly: "Are you worried about your gambling?" Listen without blame, anger or lectures.

Shame can prevent people from admitting the problem and seeking help.

02 Identify Triggers and Make a Plan

Help them recognise when and why they gamble—such as stress, boredom, loneliness, alcohol, sporting events or trying to win back losses.

Plan different activities and support for these high-risk times.

03 Put Barriers Between Them and Gambling

With their agreement, use GAMSTOP, blocking software, gambling-payment blocks and self-exclusion from betting shops. Unsubscribe from gambling promotions and arrange for essential bills to be paid first.

Avoid: lending money for gambling, paying off losses without safeguards, hiding the problem or encouraging them to win the money back.

04 Connect Them with Specialist Help

Encourage professional treatment rather than relying only on willpower. Gambling-specific CBT, peer support and financial advice can help.

Offer to make the call with them and continue checking in—recovery may include setbacks.

05 Ask About Safety

Gambling-related harm can increase the risk of suicide, particularly after a major loss or relapse.

Ask directly: "Are you thinking about harming yourself or suicide?" Take any answer seriously and act immediately.
